A Gigantic Clearance Sale of Fine Millinery.

The downward tendency of prices is doubly interesting, because the offer only includes Bright, Fresh, New Goods—No Shop-worn Stuff—No Shoddy.

Come tomorrow and convince yourself that it pays to buy goods of the highest character—particularly when the cost is so little.

Some of the finest hats, not hackneyed copies of millinery style sheets, but positively original conceptions of the millinery in the land. Every new hat you'll find one like a $25 Paris creation—and you'll marvel at the closeness of the copy. Mind you, hardly two bear the least resemblance to one another. They are the very ones which were $10 and $12.

Put Down to $5.00 Each.

WE SHALL SELL NEXT

1,000 Fine French Chip Hats, Rough Faux Brand Short-back Sallors and Children's Fine Milan Sallors, trimmed with broad bands of Ottoman ribbon in one and two-tone colorings.

These goods are entirely new this season, and are worth 75c and $1.00 each. We want to make a clean sweep at—

500 Rough Braid Bicycle Hats, trimmed with silk ribbon and quills, in all colors. Worth 75c—

One lot of Trimmed Walking Hats and Dress Shapes—odds and ends of new goods—which sold for 50c and 75c—
